Family size bio-gas plants for cooking and lighting purposes are installed at subsidized rates with the dairy farmers targeted as potential beneficiaries. Another scheme is the Energy Conservation, aimed at efficient utilization of solid cooking fuels such as firewood to reduce the rate of deforestation and improve the health of rural people, particularly the women folks who are exposed to the drudgery of smokes in traditional kitchens.

Portable Improved Chullah are procured and distributed to the needy people at subsidised rates. Various models of fixed smokeless Chullah are set up in villages and towns by trained masons.

(b) Energy Park:

This programme is to popularize the use of New and Renewable Energy. The parks are installed at major institutions and popular places in order to exhibit and spread awareness on the usage of Renewable Energy. Altogether, 5 district level Energy Parks have been set up at Kohima, Dimapur, Medziphema, Mon and Phek. For setting up of the State Level Energy Education Park at Agri-Expo site Dimapur, Government of India has sanctioned an amount of Rs.83.00 lakhs. Presently civil works at the site are in progress through negotiated loan under State Plan for the year 2008-09.

(c) Solar Thermal Extension Programme (STEP)

This scheme was introduced to set up Solar Water Heating Systems, Solar Cookers and Akshay Urja Solar Shops. Under the Solar Thermal programme, the Government of India provides 50% of the total project cost and the remaining is borne by the beneficiaries. Till date, a total of 40 units of various capacities ranging from 100 to 2000 litres per day have been installed. Two Akshay Urja Solar shop have been established in the State with one in the State capital and the other at Dimapur.

(d) Bio-Mass Gasifier Project:

During the 10th Five year Plan special incentive for the North Eastern States was introduced against which 7 projects with a total capacity of 740 kW has been sanctioned at a total cost of Rs.2.64 crores. Out of the 7 Biomass Gasifier Projects, Asukhomi and Medziphema villages of 2x100 kW, Sutemi and Panso villages of 2x20 kW and Pfutseromi village of 2x50 kW have been commissioned. Longwa village of 2x100 kW and Tizit village of 2x50 kW are under construction and are expected to be commissioned soon.

(e) Rural Electrification Programme:

Under this programme 3 (three) villages under Pungro R.D. Block, Tuensang district viz. Wongtsowang village, Muthingtong village and Hakumute village have been selected at a total project cost of Rs.29.00 lakhs. Out of these three, Wongtsowang village and Muthingtong village has been electrified and Hakumute village is to be electrified very shortly. This programme is on a 90:10, CSS:SS/beneficiary basis. There are still more villages in the State that needs to be electrified through New and Renewable Energy Sources.

(g) Wind Energy:

During the year 2007-08, Government of India directed the Centre for Wind Energy Technology (C-WET) Chennai, to put up wind mast for study of wind potential in the State of Nagaland against which, wind mast of 50 meters height has been put up at 3 sites viz. Pfutsero town, Kikuma block and Thizama village during 2009-10 to study the wind velocity and its directions for 2 years.

Solar photo voltaic programme got implemented during the year 1997-98. Under this programme, 6,245 units of Solar Lanterns, 720 units of Solar Home Lights 10 units of Solar Street Lights and 3 units of Solar Water Pumps has been distributed at subsidized rates till date.

(i) Rajiv Gandhi Akshay Urja Diwas (RGAUD) :

Rajiv Gandhi Akshay Urja Diwas is celebrated on the 20th of August every year in all the Districts of Nagaland to spread the message of Renewable Energy and Energy Conservation. It began in the year 2004-05 with the agenda to address the national problem of energy crisis particularly through mass rallies, human chains/runs and competitions on the theme of Renewable Energy such as essay writing, painting, quiz, debates etc.

(j) Information & Publicity Awareness :

NRE has concentrated its activities on the dissemination of information on energy promotion, propagation and creation of awareness among the masses by organising seminars, business meets, trainings etc.

(k) Hydro Power Programmes

With the aims of reducing the use of non renewable energy due to high depletion of fossil fuels and reduction of carbon emissions, use of Hydro power has been initiated to the high extent in India and around the globe due to its renewable source of energy by nature and its low cost. It is to be mentioned that the Government of India has the policy to reduce Fossil fuel by 10% per annum and in this regard, Hydro power plays a major role in reducing the use of fossil fuel. Hydro power is one of the greenest power because the water which is tapped from the river is normally allowed to flow back to its original course of the river or otherwise used for domestic consumption.

Nagaland has huge potentiality for setting up hydropower stations, owing to its favorable topographical and natural landscape covered with thick forest having perennial flow of water, making it more feasible for setting up of Hydro electric projects. Unlike other power projects, renewable energy projects especially hydro power projects are eco-friendly and cost effective as the operation and maintenance cost is comparatively very low which becomes more suitable in the long run.

At present the Department has identified few Hydro electric project sites in the state, out of which Tsutsung Yongki HEP (1MW) will be executed during 2010-11. The Department will continue to explore water potentialities of the state with the help of Ministry of New & Renewable Energy, Government of India. Most of the projects will encompass community participation to enhance overall sustainability of the project through conserving their forest in the catchment areas and by way of giving incentives to the local community. Educated local youths will be capacitated for operation and maintenance. The mandate of the department will stress on reduction on energy demand – supply gap and environmental well being of the state.
